

This is an official notice to the public:

The South Bay Union School District obtained approval by the Board of Trustees on December 19, 2019 and May 21, 2020 to dispose of obsolete textbooks and instructional materials due to replacement by newer adoptions of those materials. On July 21, 2020, sixty days after the approval, surplus or undistributed obsolete instructional materials that are usable for educational purposes may be donated to any Board of Education, county free library or other state institution; any United States public agency or institution; any non-profit charitable organization; or children or adults in California or foreign countries for the purpose of increasing literacy. They may also be sold to any organization that agrees to use the materials for educational purposes (Education Code 60510).

If you have any questions, please contact the South Bay Union School District Warehouse at 619-628-5382.
